Dear John:

I think that you will be pleased to know that [redacted] will remain at Caversham until October 1958, which is one year longer than originally planned. Her management of our London Bureau impressed me very favorably during my last visit, and I am confident that her extension of her tour will benefit both our Services.

The report on [redacted] African Survey is still in preparation. [redacted] assistant on the Operations Staff, [redacted] is leaving FBIS and has been away most of the past few weeks. This has prevented [redacted] giving exclusive attention to the Survey, and I will of course send you a report when it is ready.

Sincerely,

Chief, FBIS
